“ To Jim and Mike: I am so sorry for your loss. Getsy was a terrific lady who always had a ready smile and quick laugh. She was a wonderful cook, a good friend to my mother (and others), and a very loving wife, mother, and grandmother. I know that you and many, many others will miss her. We must rejoice in the fact that she is now in her heavenly eternal home. Rest In Peace, dear Getsy.

“ I always enjoyed being around the Wileys. Mr. Jim Wiley was one of the Babe Ruth and Legion Marne Post 28 coaches. Mike was my friend and teammate, many times over. So, I ended up in the house at the foot of Northgate on many occasions. Mrs. Wiley was always so nice to us raucous teenagers. I have lost touch with the family over the years, but still have many fond memories. God bless the Wileys. Please accept my sincerest condolences.
