“ Aunt Connie, you are such a beautiful person. Always kind, always selfless, always giving and always genuine. I'll miss your smile, chatting with you on the phone every now and then, getting thoughtful holiday cards without fail, but most of all, I'll miss and always remember how much you made me feel special through great memories as a child. I love you Connie and I can't wait to see you again! Love, Eric.

I will miss you tremendously Aunt Connie. I will never forget your wonderful laugh and how you always made everyone feel so welcomed and loved. I have wonderful memories of being on the farm with you and your sisters. Thank you for always being in our lives and for all of the cards that came without fail every year. I will truly miss you and please always know what a wonderful impact you have left of my life. Celebrate in the heavens with your mother! I will see you there one day!
