“ I knew John from the Rolling Mill and he was a good neighbor. I am sorry to hear of his passing and will miss the times he stopped at our house while taking a walk and take a break and visit with us. My wife on most holidays would take cookies, Pancakes or what ever she had fixed to John and deliver them to him. May god bless his family.

“ Laura, Sylvia, Natalie, and Family, what a shock when I saw in the paper of your fathers passing. We had not been able to get together as Dad is not doing well, and that is why I will be unable to come to the funeral home. Your Father was so very proud of you ladies, and the grandchildren, as that is all we talked about when we would get together. It is very sad situation, but we know for sure that your parents are united again. God Bless, and we will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. James and Pandora

“ May John F. Coss RIP, far be it for the true God to act unjustly, "if an able bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait until my relief comes." Job 14:14. "... Everythi ng he has made pretty in its time. Even time indefinite he has put in their heart... I have come to know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good during one's life; and also that every man should eat and indeed drink and see good for all his hard work. It is the gift of God."Ecclesiastes 3:10-13"The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, ... to a resurrection of life." John 5:28,29
