

Craig, A. Gibson

March 19, 2011

Craig, Geneva A. Gibson, 87, of Wheeling, formerly of Bridgeport, OH, departed this world, for life after this life, surrounded by family that adored her.

She was the youngest of seven children born to the late George and Ida Mae Cox Gibson on January 11, 1924 in Wheeling.

She was a wonderful mother to five children and grandmother to seven grandchildren, all whom she loved dearly.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her beloved son, Mark, her "star in Heaven" that she frequently searched the night sky to gaze upon; five brothers Elwood, Melvin, Robert, Clark, and Irvin Gibson; two sisters Katherine Gibson and Mildred Collins.

Surviving children are Terri Craig, Brad Craig, Bob (Robin) Craig all of Wheeling, and David (Jodie) Craig of Xenia, Ohio; son-in-law Bill McGlumphy of Proctor; seven grandchildren Billy and Sarah McGlumphy of Wheeling, Buddy and Josh Craig of Xenia, Amanda, Alison, and Adam Craig of Wheeling.

Private memorial services and interment will be held at the convenience of the family at Riverview Cemetery, at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be made to Amedysis Hospice, 1251 Warwood Ave., Wheeling, WV 26003.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Know that through your mother's life and each one of you being there for her so many lives were touched. While she is no longer among us in the physical, the gifts of quite strength. She had humility by definition as a virtue and "the quality of being modest, reverential, even politely submissive, and never being arrogant, contemptuous, rude or even self-abasing" My prayers and thoughts are with all of you, ~Dawn
