So many wonderful memories from our old Club Sands days. It's hard to wrap my head around. You were such a free spirit. So kind and caring! Heaven has gained a true Angel. You will be sorley missed. Until we meet again God Speed my Dear Friend!

Crystal: when I was young I always wanted a big sister. You were more than my cousin. You brought me out of my shell and taught me how to speak up for myself. We had so much fun together; you staying at my house in the country and me staying at your house in town. Riding horses together, hunting snakes in the woods and loving all animals. We were so similar in our interests and so different, me an introvert, you an extrovert. We shared secrets. I will see you when I get there.
