“ I met Cindy when she and I went to WVBC together, she and I were talking and realized our two families were related thru marriage(small world), I met a true beautiful person that day, she was always kind, sweet, and funny, she made our classes something I could look forward to go through even when I didn't want to be there. I'm so very sorry that if you did not ever meet Cindy, WOW !!, you've missed one of the great ladies there ever was.
Rest in Peace Cindy, and thanks for being my friend.

“ Yesterday was a day we knew was coming but always hoped that it would not. Our hearts are heavy with Cindy's passing, but as Christians we know that our Lord has given her Amazing Grace and she is by his side in Heaven. And she has been reunited with her son Andy. We only wish that We had gotten more time to know her before she had gotten ill. May God ease the family's pain at this time as we send them our love and prayers. We will miss Cindy Greg and Jeanie Campbell
