“ Dear Riggerbach Family,
We wish to extend our heartfelt sympathy to your family on the passing of Dale. During the six and half years that our family lived in Sardis and attended church with Dale, we came to know and love him and appreciated his example of faith and his gentle manner. Receiving Christmas cards from him after we moved away was very special and blessed us greatly. He will truly be missed. May God comfort you.
Blessings,
Mark, Brenda and Laura Nenadov

“ Riggerbach Family, my deepest sympathy on the passing of Dale. He worked with my Dad at the plant for many years and I knew him from there. But also worked with him in the Farm Bureau. He was a very down to earth person, with a heart of gold that would help anyone. They did not come any finer than Dale-salt of the earth good person that loved God. May God bring peace and comfort to all of you during these most difficult times. In Christian Love,
Pandora

“ Dear Millie, Jim, Bill, Don, Marie, and all of your family,
It is with sadness tempered with thankfulness that we learn of the passing of your dear Dad, Grandpa, Brother, Uncle and so much more. Dale is very dear to the hearts of many. We remember Dale as the man you could turn to for help with anything and he was there. My Dad, Delbert Indermuhle, was so blessed to have Dale as a friend, neighbor, and brother in Christ. Whether it was in the hayfield, grading, hauling, building a church, digging a ditch, and so much more, Dale was there.
Dale had a very accurate recall ability of things that happened in the past. My Dad had a bit of a memory problem, if he didn't have it written down he sometimes couldn't remember it. As long as I can remember, I can hear Dad say, "We'll have to ask Dale, he'll remember." And so we did. We loved hearing his "old time" stories. Dale was a man genuinely interested in everything. Striking up a conversation with Dale always proved enlightening. I loved those early Sunday mornings when he and Virginia would be the first ones to church and we'd just sit and talk waiting for others to arrive. Precious!!
God be with you all as you lay your dear one to rest. All our love, Bart and Joyce Wiggins.
