“ It is with great sadness that I write this. Dave was my brother-in-law and good friend. He was there for Bill and me in bad times and good. We loved him very much. I will miss him forever but take comfort in the thought that he and Bill are reunited. My prayers and sorrow go out to his family. Maggie

“ Dave was always the most sweetest person I have ever had the pleasure of knowing for over 30 years. I love you Dave and will miss the chats we had and seeing your smile. You could not ask for a better friend and family. Dave would always make sure that you were smiling no matter how bad of a day you were having. You will be sadly missed and FOREVER in our hearts. Say hello to daddy beeb and Jimmy for us, please? And maybe put a few good words in for me? Love you so much and always will forever!

Dave was like a part of my family. Growing up on Battle Run he was at my house most everyday in the Summer time. My Mom treated him like her son. We sure had great times running through the creeks, swimming, riding bikes, baseball and probably many more things kids do. Rest in Peace my dear friend. God needed you sooner than we wanted to let you go.

Tell my Mom and Dad Hello for me.

I am so sorry for your loss. He was very caring and so darn funny! I will always remember the good times we all had when he would visit my neighbors next door. He always kept us in stitches. God has a great one in his arms now
