“ Dear Marion and family, David was a wonderful friend whose Christian example of love for his Savior and the joy of his salvation also shone through everything he did. I always enjoyed our conversations and his prayers and concern for when Nancy was being treated for cancer. We miss him very much. We're sorry we can't be at either David's visitation or funeral, but you and the family will be in our prayers. Love, Bob and Nancy Wildeman

“ Marion and family, David was a blessing to me these 35 years. I appreciated you and Dave taking the time to welcome me into your home on numerous occasions, especially when we lived in Lancaster, Ohio. Your spiritual strength and service has been a blessing to church members and communities. May God richly reward your faithfulness!
