“ We saved a paper and from time to time the cardboard beer flats for Dave at the Dragon Mart. For years we called him Mr. Butler when he came in the store until finally one day he requested we call him Dave cause Mr. Butler made him feel old.

All of us at the Dragon Mart will miss Dave and our thoughts and prayers are with all his family

“ Dave's garage was next to my house and he was my neighbor and friend for over 20 years. Many a day has started with him (loudly) "Left turn signal, right turn signal..." I have spent many a summer afternoon, sitting there, solving the worlds problems. He was smart, verbal and funny.
He knew, in cold weather, my wife liked to warm up her kitchen on cold mornings by baking something - cakes, pies, cinnamon rolls, cookies ect. He carefully watched out his windows for me to walk by on my way to work, would pop out to see what got baked today.

I was sad when he left, and I will miss him stopping by.
