“ David might have been the only uncle I had on my maternal side, but I'm convinced he would have been my favorite even if I had more. When you reflect upon your experiences with such a kind and gentle relative, it's interesting how you have assorted nostalgic memories. These include our discussions about Celtics vs. Lakers, watching in awe of the closest human-animal relationships I've ever witnessed (to say David loved dogs is an understatement), and sadly admitting to myself I will never cook scrambled eggs as well as he did.

“Enjoy the little things in life because one day you'll look back and realize they were the big things.”

“ Kim and I would like to give you our deepest condolences. Dave was a good friend and co-worker. He was one of the very few people that I made it a point to see when I went to the office. He brightened the day of everyone he came in contact with, either over the phone or in person, he was a joy. He was a good friend and more important, he was a great man. But you all know that. He is missed.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Dave's family...who were truly his pride and his joy. I enjoyed working with Dave, adored his picture wall of grandchildren, and loved his oh so fun, dry sense of humor. He was one of the best. Prayers for all of you.

“ So sorry for your loss - Dave was a tremendous person, he made me laugh every day I worked with him, he was missed when he retired and he will be strongly missed now - I will miss talks of the Steelers and his wall of Grandchildren, also the fact that he made sure he had candy for everyone though he couldn't eat it. Rest in Peace dear friend - Donnie P.
