“ To the Davis family, I had not seen Jeff in many years, but I have fond memories of him from my youth. He and Barry used to hang out with us when we were kids. He was a great guy and I am so sorry that he was taken from you so soon. I know he is watching over you from heaven, and his love for you will ever remain in your hearts.

“ dad, you are my hero, my bestfriend, my father, now be my angel. this has to be the hardest thing any of us have had to do. you always said I was strong - but this here has weakened everyone to no end. I love you and miss you a ton, you're not going to be forgotten. EVER. you always stuck up for me no matter what, everyone knew not to mess with me because of what they had to deal with. watch us, protect us, make sure we all make it alright.
