“ I am so sorry to hear about Debbie. I had the pleasure of meeting her through a mutual friend, years ago at the Belmont Co fair when Chandra was taking goats. We would talk for hours. Then seen Debbie when I would go to Hig Mart and would chit chat with her there. She was a sweet lady, and I will miss her as my friend. Please know that your family are in my thoughts and prayers at this most difficult time. Rest easy Debbie.

“ Mawmaw was the best woman She would always give me advice whether I wanted to hear it or not she was so sweet. She had the biggest heart I loved calling her and just talking about anything and everything she helped me with advice about what car was good for me I was joking with her telling her I was gonna get a Ford police interceptor and she said kadie that car is to fast for me with my led foot I said well I can get to your house faster she said and you will get your wings faster too so I said okay mawmaw I won't get it. We then went to get our car the day we got it I called her and joked and said guess what car we got she said what car did you get I said I got the interceptor she said no you didn't kadie I said no we got the tracks she just laughed but was so happy for us I loved her so much I really don't know how life is going to be without her I've wanted to call her so many times just to hear her voice I didn't want to hear she was gone my heart hurts so much I love you mawmaw always to the moon and back infinity times infinity you will always be missed and loved I hope the angels know they have the best because we all knew we had the best and it will be hard without you 🥹🙄❤️💕💕

“ My sweet sweet Debbie, my heart is shattered to pieces. Not only my big sissy , my true best friend. I will treasure every memory of you.

Thank You sissy for being the most loving, gracious, humble person I know. your love and guidance in my life has certainly made me a better person.

I selfishly am wanting you here i know you are in a better place. Free from all the illness . breathing deeper and freely But. I want to hug you again and remind you how very special you are. How you so unselfishly loved so many and touched so many hearts with your love and devotion to our family.

My life will always have a empty spot with out you. I wont' say goodbye I am saying see you when its my time to be called home. Until then I love you sissy with every beat of my heart.
