“ Debbie an I went to school together. She spent many overnight adventures at my house. Over the years I would see her out and about and she was always her same old cheerful, funny self. She will be greatly missed especially at all the yard sales that we always ran into each other at.

PS

“ Debbie and I started working at Murphy Mart on the same day. I was badge #1057 and she was #1065. We laughed cause she said that it was going to be a great friendship since we were both rotten ornery. We both were in our teens and boy crazy. I was her maid of honor at her first wedding and we have been friends forever even when we hadn't seen each other for years.

We crossed paths again a few years back, she and her hubby, me with my hubby Mike. Deb and I loved auctions and both loved frogs, she more than I. We would ask each other who's turn it was to bid on the item we both liked! Frank and Mike would roll their eyes at each other.

Sadly the last time we spoke was when Frank passed away. She told me about having cancer and the struggles she had ahead of her. She praised her family for helping her and told me Candy was doing what she could to help her. She loved both of you very much

Debbie was a hard worker, good friend, a pistol when crossed and someone who would have your back in a fight. Her friends will miss her. Sending prayers your way in that you will find some peace.
