“ So sorry about Debbie. I can remember back when she was one of the first group of girls to play organized summer softball in Moundsville. She always had the same smile she kept as an adult. While she left this world too soon, I'm sure she enjoyed her time here and hopefully left knowing she made it a better place for many.

“ *To the Young Family,
My thoughts and prayers are with each of you today. I had the priviledge of meeting Debbie ... and you too John in 4th grade ... (Carla .. you were the lucky one and escaped0 ... and watching the 3 of you grow up and become adults ... John SR ... you and Jeanne are so lucky to have raised these 3 great kids! We've shared many laughs and concerns about them ... but they have all blossomed into beautiful adults.
As I read the thoughts of her friends ... they are so right. I don't ever remember a time Debbie didn't have a smile on her face ... and I can still hear that happy, carefree laughter ... She loved adventure ... and always looked forward to tomorrow ... and I'm positive ... her laughter is brightening heaven today!
Now to Debbie ... only tell the "good stories" about me up there ... cuz I want to join your circle someday!
She is smiling down ... saying "I'm OK ... so smile a happy thought .. share a hug with a friend ... like she would!
Love to All*

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Debbie's family and friends. She was always laughing and always making others laugh, just making people feel good in general. We all had so much fun together - during those college years. I am just flooded with memories of all the little sayings she had, and dancing together to bluegrass music. Debbie was so full of life - and will be missed my many. I am so fortunate to have had her as my friend. She is a really good person. My deepest sympathy to the Young family.

“ So sorry and so sad today. It doesn't seem possible that she's gone. Her personality was the kind that left you smiling or laughing after you talked with her. I've got a few memories of times with her that was the best. Especially when we were in high school. Thinking of you John, Carla and Mr. Young, and the rest of the family. She was a great person who I'm proud to say, was my friend. You'll be missed, Deb
