“ I loved visiting Aunt Jean when I was a kid and also in her later years in Elm Grove. When I was a kid and before she was married, Aunt Jean let me spend the night with her in the Wheeling YWCA. I remember walking downtown and getting an ice cream at Walgreens soda fountain and buying hot peanuts from a store with Mr. Peanut out front. It was heaven to a little girl and Aunt Jean felt like my guardian angel. I will always remember her.
