“ Dear Anna, Sorry I missed the initial announcement on Denny’s passing. I will always hold fond memories of him as the coach at West Liberty and our time at the Nationals in ‘85 & ‘86. Also, I will never forget him making spaghetti in North Carolina during Spring break. He had a towel over his arm when he announced dinner is ready and made it several times. It is also easy to say he was a nice, gracious soul that will be missed dearly and a good person I will hold dearly in my memories. God Bless, Brian ‘86.
