“ Denny worked with my father at Jones Oil for a number of years. My father, Casey, and Denny became great friends and co workers. As a young child and young man I enjoy the days and summers working with Denny at Jones Oil. He taught me how to work hard, kindness to others and always be willing to help where is needed. That work ethic and his kindness to others he would come into contact is something about him I will always remember...along with his smile. The Jones family, Judy, Jeannine, me (Jim) and my father (passed 7 years old) had a great deal of love and respect for Denny. Our thoughts go out you all of your family.

“ I remember as a little girl playing in uncle Dennys yard when he lived in Canal Lewisville. I remember the huge pine trees and being chased around the yard by his dogs. I have several found memories of him growing up.Rip Uncle Denny you will be missed. Give grandpa and grandma a big hug and kiss from me. Fly high

“ Funny, but no mention in this obituary of the three children he abandoned. Andrea, Dennis, and Dustin. They have heartbeats too.
