“ Sending our deepest sympathy and most sincere condolences to you all for the loss of your beautiful wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt & our cousin. No matter what title she held she set a grand example of it!

Always felt that she was an angel amongst us. She saw the good in everybody! To share just one memory would be hard, because every time we were together at a reunion, or visiting her house etc. she had so many funny stories that I cannot possibly choose the best one! And in our years past 50 I admired her memory for being able to still remember so many fun times! Then too, no matter how I felt, her expressions, laugh & descriptions of everyday happenings could make me smile out loud! Praising God, that she is no longer suffering & that we will see her again someday in Paradise. God bless & be with you all. Memory Eternal.

“ Diane was like my second mother, and she always made me feel safe, loved and secure...I know she made my brothers feel the same way. Watching her and Gary together always made me laugh, she was so sweet but also so funny. I can still hear her saying “oh, Gary” whenever he was cracking us kids up. I will always have a place in my heart for her, she was one of a kind. Love you, momma Diane.

“ Staying at Diane & Gary’s house and teaching myself the piano. Hiking down in the woods. Spending time with her and Mom together & listening to their stories & laughing. Miss them both now.

“ I have many memories of Diane growing up. She was always a good friend. She never said a mean word against anyone. I grew up with Diane and my husband grew up with Gary. We had many great times with them. One of the best memories of her in recent years was the time her sweet daughter Amy surprised them with an anniversary party. Diane was so funny and full of life. That is how I will remember her. The world will be a sad place without her. God bless her and her family. Sending love and prayers to to the family. Sharon and Tom Andrews.
