“ May God take you into his blessed home and take all of your pain. I am so sorry for the suffering that you had to go through, but you are in a much better place now. You were my first love and I am so sad that your wife Fran did not get a lot more time to spend with you in this life. But you two will meet again in the next life. Fran I know that you took really good care of him through all of his suffering, and there is a special place in heaven for you. My condolences to you and the rest of Raymond's family.

“ Rest in Peace Cousin. You were a positive influence on me and I will always hold a special place for you in my heart. See you on the other side! Fran, may God Bless you and the family during your time of need. I cannot thank you enough for connecting with me and letting me know how things were going for him. He was a good guy and I know your heart is hurting.
