“ Aunt Delores, was my favorite Aunt. We lived next door and she was always so much fun. She really was like my second Mom. I was sooo blessed to have someone to confide in. We were very close. Anyone would be lucky to have known her. I believe that God put her in my life to get me through some of the hard times growing up. I know that heaven has many family members that can't wait to see her. She is going to be missed.
