“ I am so sorry to read about the loss of Mr. Hackathorn and I wanted to extend my condolences to your family. We are encouraged by the fact that God knows and feels our pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22). Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29). Please visit jw.org for more Bible based information and encouragement.

“ I had the absolute pleasure of knowing Don when he ran the body shop. I had a lot of respect for him as a person and a good business person. I once visited him and he gave me one of those round Srewball screwdrivers which I still have today. May your soul rest in peace my friend

“ Lara and family,

I am so sorry for the loss of your father. I never had the pleasure of meeting him, but knowing you and knowing that he had a hand in a raising you lets me know that he was one heck of a great guy. Cherish the memories you have of your dad and let those guide you through the difficult days ahead. If you need anything, please let me know. Prayers and love to all.
