“ I did not know Donald well, However, I know his son, and daughter Kim.. And may I say he raised an extortionary son and daughter! .. caring and down to earth (as they say) Donald must be proud to call Adam his son, and Kim his daughter, and I am sure the other two sisters, (whom, I do not know).. To Adam and all of the sisters, May peace be with you ALL.<3

“ Our sincere condolences to Aunt Lila and all of my “Jones” cousins. Uncle Donald was always a kind, soft hearted gentleman. He was a wonderful conversationalist. What a man to look up to for the way he lead his life simply, yet fully, truly eloquent. Thank you for the memories Uncle Don. Aunt Lila and family, it’s a hard road ahead, he will be missed. Cousins, you will always hear your father in the back of your mind- he gave you all enough wisdom and love to last three lifetimes. Our thoughts are with you. Much love, Scott & Becky Shilling-Rodocker, Caitlin, Grant, Aidan & Nadia Dorman and Shilling, Katy, Avery & Shilling Rodocker❤️

“ Don was a great man, friend , coworker at the Hospital, Quinets and Christian Brother. Don was a talker and if you ran into him you better not be in a hurry, he took his time out for anyone, he was unique that way.

He took pride in everything he did, whether mowing the lawn or planting flowers and maintaining them at WCH. The Sardis area was fortunate to have him.

Becky and I send our condolences to the family.

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Don Jones. I spent alot of time at Don and Lila's house growing up. He was a contributing member of our small community. He spent several summers helping coach one of our softball teams and helped make the game fun for everyone. He was such a kind person who always had positive things to say. He always had a story to tell, but as a kid we were too busy trying to get out the door to go play, to really listen. I am grateful that as an adult, I had the chance to work with him at WCH. I got to hear all of those stories I never had time for as a kid! ❤️ Prayers to the family for comfort and peace. He will be greatly missed! Desi (Jackson) Cook
