“ So many memories of our Aunt Donna Lou. Always willing to play with us when we were children, in the snow or in the creek. Didn't matter to her, she just loved making sure we had fun. She loved to live life and made sure we did too. I will always cherish those times and will miss her so, so much. Thank you to all our family for helping us live chat into the ceremony. This means so much to Mama, to be able to see and talk with everyone.

“ Aunt Donna was the best Aunt in the world. So many of my best memories are with her growing up and several as an adult. She will forever be missed. I wish I was able to have spent more time with her. No one in the world could be as amazing to me as she was. Always love you Aunt Donna. Give hugs to Uncle Earl, Grandma and my dad. I'm sure its one heck of a family reunion up there.
