“ Met Doris while living in Monroe Co. She clerked many yrs @ Klugs IGA. Great clerk here @ Knowltons old store & was in pain most of time, but she stuck it out. I visited her @ her neat, clean, cheerful home in Sardis. Knew her Dad..he was a an elderly neighbor who drove Model T..would stop & chat awhile, came from great family. REST HIGH. Ur work on Earth is done!

“ An Angel has gained her wings...Doris and Junior welcomed my "sisters" and I in to their hearts and lives. I love them both. Sadly, Connie and my "step brothers" have turned their backs. (As my "step brother" wrote, "If you can't be anything else, Be Kind"). We are never promised tomorrow and always should tell those we love that we do. Doris made the best candy at Christmas! I loved her chocolate fudge! She was a great cook. I can still picture her in her kitchen cooking for holidays and fanning herself to cool off from hot flashes. Be happy and at peace with Junior...Rest In Heaven, Doris...💜 I miss you both. ❤️

“ So sorry to hear of your mom's passing. She was wonderful lady. Always so cheerful at the IGA and even later on as cashier at Knowltons Mkt. I still laugh about the time I stopped by her house to pick up the food she prepared for the Sardis Homecoming. I had just sent a Christmas card to her at Arbors a couple of days ago. Sardis has lost one of the best. Prayers to you & your family. Rest in Peace, Doris.

“ *Dear Connie,
We are saddened at your loss. Your Mom was such a special lady and probably one of the reasons you are so dear. You have truly shown how a daughter should treat her mother. God be with you as you lay your dear one to rest. Love, Bart & Joyce*
