“ Matt, Bryan, and Zach,

We were very sorry to learn of your dad's passing. I don't remember a time when I didn't know Doug, and I recall with great fondness the friendship our families enjoyed through the years. Even after we were grown and raising families of our own he would chance by the house on occasion, and we were always grateful for the conversations we would have, the memories and laughs we would share, and the encouragement he would give us. His love and pride for his sons and grandchildren was evident, and we extend our deepest sympathy and condolences to you and your families. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I'm at a loss for words to hear that Doug is gone. I spoke with him just last week and got to tell him I love him, we spoke about being friends and neighbors for our entire lives, those roots last forever. Brent, Brenda, Matt, Brian and Zack, my thoughts and prayers are with you. So glad Doug and Brenda came for a visit a couple years go, that was the last time I got to spend time with Doug. We will all be together again someday

“ I was so shocked when I read that Doug has passed away. When we were young people, we were all good friends in the neighborhood. As teenagers the kids would come to our house (the White girls house on 1st St.) and we would all sit on the porch. Della and I would have chores to do while Mom and Dad were at work. One evening Mom came home from work early, she walked in on all of us kids doing the chores and Doug was ironing clothes in the living room. Now that was back when kids were real friends. Through the years, we all drifted in different directions, but I always had good thoughts of Doug and Brent, and wondered where their lives had taken them. RIP my old friend, I will never forget you. Prayers for Brent and the rest of the family.
