“ Uncle Doug and Aunt Mary Lee were an integral part of my life. For the rest of my life, I'll remember the visits up on Benwood Hill, euchre games amongst the family down in Moundsville, WV amongst the family. Golf with him and his grandson's over at Maz's. Countless family functions, and honestly just good spirits and a nice person to be around. Uncle Doug was the oldest brother in the Charles Gordon's family and drove across the country before all the GPS and Mapquest hooplah. I'm told his father did that and his grandfather before him was a train engineer. Anyway, just like an old song everything changes. I remember more than a couple decades ago Uncle Doug showing kodak pictures of some of the places he had seen on the road. And I also remember his and Aunt Mary Lee's 50th wedding anniversary in the banquet room above Undo's in Elm Grove sometime back. You know for a couple as old as you are/were you two sure could shake a leg/cut a rug. Anyway. Rest in Peace Uncle Doug. God Bless the Gordon's. Aunt Mary Lee I hope you're getting along alright.

From Raleigh, NC with Love.
