“ Oh, Dreama. You were such a gift. The world will surely never know how many mountains kept from crumbling into a heap of pebbles because you were quietly there holding them up. I undoubtedly owe much of my sanity during my time on the hilltop to you. You will certainly be missed, but the legacy you’ve left behind continues on in the rippling actions of those touched by your kindness. I hope the Walmart trips are even more fun up there now that you don’t have to reconcile the receipts!
