“ Saddened and shocked to hear about Duane. Hard to believe it's been over 50 years since Duane and I, along with some other 1970's misfits, went to Myrtle Beach on a summer vacation. His death reminds me how when we were all kids and would spend the whole year waiting for summer vacation and when it finally came it would fly by just like that? Now as a septuagenarian, life seems to have flown by just as fast as any old summer vacation. I hope Duane left this world with no regrets during his "brief" time here. My thoughts and sympathy go out to Christy, Jeri, Nicole and the rest of Duane's family and many friends.
