

Duffey, John

December 5, 2012

Duffey, Charles John, age 89 of Flushing, OH died Wednesday, December 5, 2012 at Trinity East Acuity Specialty Hospital, Steubenville, OH.

He was born May 7, 1923 in New Port, OH the son of the late Harry J. Duffey and Nancy J. McElfresh Duffey Travis.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his step-father, Harry E. Travis; his wife, Isabell Case Duffey; brothers, Perry E., George G., and Harry J. Duffey; sisters, Edna M.C. Duffey Powell, and Rose M. Duffey McClintock.

Survivors include his companion and very good friend, which he loved very much, Dolores Michell; sisters, Sonia (William), Shirley (Les), Nancy (George); a daughter, Linda Duffey of Bellaire; three granddaughters; and twelve great-grandchildren.

There will be no visitation.

Private interment will be held at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements by Grisell Funeral Home, Bellaire.

Tribute Wall

WM

“ I'll miss talking with Charles. I called him Mr.D, and enjoyed conversation with him as he was full of information. He would show me his newly aquired coins and tell me about some of his collection. We'd talk about everything from politics to weather and everthing in between. I'll miss that, and his smile. God bless you Mr.D and may you rest in peace.

---

William Myers - December 08, 2012 at 08:06 AM

WE

“ I am very sorry to hear about Charles passing away. I always enjoyed the conversations I had with him and the coiins he would bring me. My condolences to his family.

---

William Edgar - December 07, 2012 at 06:29 PM