“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death(John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Some of my favorite childhood memories while visiting family in WV was sitting outside while Ed strummed his guitar and sang silly songs to all of his cousins. Ed you will be missed! Sorry you passed at such a young age.

To all of my family sorry for your loss you are in our thoughts and prayers.

Love,

“ *Lynna, Amy, Travis, and Amber,
My prayers are with you and your family. I am so sorry for your loss.
Uncle Ed will be greatly missed. I have so many memories of him.
When he made Missy sit on the couch and she was mad at him....
LOL we still talk about that. All those times we stayed with you when we where visiting. I still have my rocking chair he made me when I was pregnant 22 years ago. Well Kayla has it now, but I rocked her as a baby and she rocked her babies in it. It's now a family tradition from the chair that Uncle Ed made. Memories are what will get you through this difficult time. I love you.*

“ *Anyone who met Ed knows what an amazing man he was. This news was shocking and sad. May the love he had for his family help them through this. The last time I saw Ed, he was dancing at his daughter's wedding, smiling from ear to ear. Memories don't leave with him, and I pray for Lynna, Amy, Travis and Amber in this time.
Love you guys.*
