“ We are so sorry to have learned of the passing of our dear Uncle Eldon. His was a kind and gentle soul rarely encountered. I've always admired the quiet steady faithful life of service he, with his wife (my Aunt Ardith), led together. As a member of the "Greatest Generation" he defended his nation in war, returned to his hometown to build a rewarding career, and raised a wonderful family. He was a loving brother to my mother (Mary Lou Mahana) and a good friend to my father (Jim Mahana). We live overseas and count ourselves fortunate to have seen him one last time on a rare visit back home this year. We deeply mourn the passing of our Uncle Eldon and will miss him for the rest of our lives. With our deepest love and Condolences, Shawn, Chunhwa, and Christine Mahana
