“ So sorry to hear about Eldwin. He was such a good man. Always funny. He always ask about the family. I remember the days Uncle Ray always took us to church when we were little, and he was always there for a hug. He always made us feel welcome and part of the church, knowing we only went every once in a while. John, Tom, Darla & Missy, your dada will be missed by many, who knew and loved him, and that will be me. Thinking of you during this difficult time, he is at peace now. Your angel. With my deepest sympathy,
Love, Tammy West Simonelli <3
