“ Flo and I grew up living next door to each other on Front Street in Weirton. We played with our Barbie dolls, watching Bonanza (our Barbie's dated Little Joe and Adam Cartwright) eating DiCarlos pizza. I remember sitting with Flo, playing with Barbie and watching the funeral of President Kennedy. (No, girls probably don't play with Barbie into their teens like we did).

We didn't see each other often, but maintained our friendship for over 60 years. We always sent each other a Christmas card and remembered each other on our birthdays - which was pretty easy as Flo's b-day was Jan 23 and mine was Jan 24 (lol). My Mom (Esty) kept in touch with 'Flo-Bug' thru the years also.

Thinking of you Timmy Derby . . . and Flo's daughters and grandchildren - may knowing she is at rest bring you peace.

“ Don't even know where to start. Which memory do you share when you have had a life time of them. Do you start with the phone conversations where we would talk and both eat a bag of Mister Bee chips or when we had our deep girly talks that if one would tell the other one would have to kill the one that told. We shared so much . Our deep ,deep secrets. Now your going to know them without me even telling you. I am going to miss you my friend. My wish is that I get where your going. Love you .
