ELIZABETH "BETTY" PETERS DIETRICH

Betty was born on December 10, 1923 to her loving parents George and Helen Peters. A devout Catholic, she was raised in Elm Grove, educated at St. Vincent de Paul School, and St. Joseph's Academy, class of 1942. Graduating from Elliott's School of Business, she worked as a secretary until retiring at age of 75. Betty was a skilled cake decorator and took pride in her beautiful special occasion cakes well into her 80's. She was fondly known to many as "The CakeLady". She was an active member of the Seven Dolores Alter Society, working and baking at their fish fry. “ I knew Betty from working at St. Vincent's. She was a great lady, an amazing baker -- she always made beautifully decorated cakes for raffle at all the functions -- and always smiling. My condolences to Mary and to all of her family.
