“ Emma was a very special person. We thought of her as a mother! She was a caring person that was always ready to help; always worrying about us.

We will miss her dearly!

“ Emma has been our neighbor and friend for many years, she became a part of our family. My grandson loved going to visit her or just checking on her. She would call if she needed anything but mostly she would call just to talk. We love you Emma and will miss you and think of you every day.

“ I knew Emma Mae my entire life and spent a lot of my younger years with her. We shared a common passion of Pro Wrestling. We would make the trip to Wheeling once a month to our favorite wrestlers. To this day I tell my kids the story of us going to wrestling. I told her before but it never hurts.... THANK YOU EMMA MAE!! You will be missed.
