“ To the Gordon family, the amount of respect and love for the game of baseball that “Coach Gordo” passed on to my two sons is immeasurable. We thought the world of him. Like the priest quoted at today’s mass, “Success is easy, Character is rare”. Please know that his lessons will not be forgotten.

“ I had the privilege of working with Eric for a few years. He was a very intelligent and driven man. I thoroughly enjoyed my time with him at work, talking baseball and even him helping my daughter’s tee ball team. I will miss him and his genuine laugh and smile. We certainly lost a good man. My condolences to his loved ones.

“ Although I didn't know Eric well, if the saying "Only the Good Die Young" ever applied to anyone, Eric Gordon would be on the list. Unfortunately, goodness is too often cut short by life's unpredictability. People like Eric deserved a better lot in life. Just as important, those who love him, and this small part of the world have been cheated by Eric leaving too soon.

Eric was the kindest man ever. His love for his family was effident in so many ways. He was a wonderful husband to Janice, and such a fantastic father to Dylan and Nick. He had a lot more to give in life. My heart, thoughts and prayers go out to his most cherished family. I am so sorry.

“ I had the privilege of practicing law alongside and often against ERIC for the last 20 years. He is one of the finest lawyers I have ever known. Beyond the technical details of practicing law, larry was a fair, honest and mature person, well beyond his years. I will miss him immensely as a fellow attorney. My prayers for Janice and the boys.

“ To Janice, Dylan, Nick & Mrs .Gordon and family, you have our sincere condolences for your loss. This is a such a great loss of man with so many great attributes. I first met Eric my first year as an assistant coach with BDHS and went to work with these young men for 9 years. He was fantastic with these young men not only baseball but life lessons. He was always honest with them and did not sugar coat nothing. He backed that up with the support they needed. He would take them to WVU baseball games if they were home on are trips to Clarksburg, WV. He was always willing to put in the extra effort to develop these kids ,especially the catchers a position he played. His knowledge of baseball was so valuable and great it is a testament to the success we had as a program . I called him Mr. Baseball. He was as passionate about his family and his career, he loved his family . I am so lucky to have known him and associate with him in a sport we both loved. I learned so much from him. Thanks for everything Eric , you will be truly missed by a lot of people on so many levels, but that is because you helped and cared for so many others. I am proud and lucky to have known you as a friend .God Bless the Gordon family .Sincerely ,Bob Kleeh
