“ I want to thank everyone for all they have given. Thank you for your prayers and all you have done for Mom. There is no Mother or Dad more wonderful than they were. I remember all the little things they did for us all when we were small. From the Mad dogs to the cinnamon toast to the merry go round Dad made in the back yard. No one can say that they had a better childhood as I had. Love Don Fahnestock

“ Thank you to all who have written thoughts and prayers above and who were able to attend my grandmothers viewings and/or funeral service. She will be greatly missed by so many people. She was a wonderful lady, and a great Christian example to everyone that ever met her... There are no words that would describe correctly the amount of appreciation we have for all those who loved her. May God comfort each and everyone of us now as she is in the loving arms of Christ.
