“ Brenda, Kenny and Marsha, I just read the news of Bill tonight on fb and I'm so sorry. I'm sure it has been a long, rocky struggle for all of you. I had not received an update lately, but hoped he was doing better. It appears you have many good friends who loved Bill and who will continue to give you support. All of you will be in my thoughts and prayers during the coming weeks and months. Wish we lived closer and could have visited. Love you all.

“ Please accept our condolences. Having known Billy since almost infancy I could speak of his good character and personal attributes. I am sure he will be missed by so many friends and family and co-workers. His passing only punctuates the season we are now in and thinking of the resurrection of our Lord. And now the resurrection of Billy into everlasting peace and joy, his suffering is over and he is indeed now in the comfort of God.

“ Brenda and family, I'm really going to miss our atv rides and hunting with Bill (Kenny). Our group of riders have put over 4500 miles of riding from Canada to Tennessee and through it all Bill has been a really good friend of mine and everyone he met. I'll really miss his sense of humor. Deeply sorry for your loss. Tony, Jeannie, and family

“ Brenda, Marsha, Kenny, and families, I want to express my deep sorrow to each of you. I knew Kenny for a very long time and will always remember our long talks during our time spent together riding to work and on the phone. I will cherish the memories we made while fishing. He was a great friend. Your loss is a loss to all the people who knew him. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, and we are sharing the burden of your grief. If you need anything, we are just a call away. May God bless you. Those we loved will always echo within our thoughts, our words, and our hearts. With love and sympathy, Dave and Mary Yonley and family

“ To Brenda and the entire Fisher family,I wish to express my deepest and most sincere sympathy to each of you. Kenny was a great friend with whom I shared many fun and enjoyable times and great conversations. There will be a huge void in your lifes just as there will be in mine. May God grant each of you the strength and courage to move forward as Kenny would want you to do. He will be missed greatly and please know that the world was a better place because of Kenny. My prayers and thoughts are with you. I will deeply miss my friend.May God bless each of you. Please know if there is anything I can do in this most difficult time, please let me know.With our prayers and sympathy,Major and Idora Kimbro
