“ Floyd is my cousin through my mother. He was the one that encouraged me to sing when I first started 15 years ago. He was always so friendly and made you feel good about yourself. Hung around him and Shirley quite a bit over the years. This came as a shock to me. What a beautiful person he was. Shirley I am truly sorry for you and the families loss. His music will be missed and his singing as well. He will be missed by so many God bless you all. Patricia Robinson

Thinking of everyone. My hearts go out to you. He was one of my best memories of my early 20's. Always kind, funny, giving, stern (lol) I loved watching everyone run for the hills when he would come outside towards the shop and I would just sit there laughing. He was AWESOME. I loved talking to him and hearing his plans for the property before the property developed. The parties up on the hill before the shelter was built. The jam sessions in the shop. The delicious eats. I truly loved him like a dad. I am blessed to have called him a friend. And to have been a part of your lives. LOVE y'all deeply. ((( hugs)))
