Years ago 7 of us made a trip to Guatemala, it was amazing, we fell in love with the people and certainly with the kids. They prepared a room for all 7 of us to stay in, we used the beds belonging to the kids, they slept on the floor. There was a contest every evening when we turned in. Shane and Mike tried to see who could fall asleep the fastest. It didn't make any difference, whoever won, the rest of us lost. Those 2 boys tore up the walls and room with their snoring. One would start and then stop, the other would fill in the gaps. It was really comical, but we loved it regardless. You will be missed Preacher.

“ Mike-my heart is broken and my mind in disbelief. There are simply no words that provide any reason for your departure. You are the best of humanity and will be missed eternally. Thank you for your friendship through the years even when it was hard. I love you my dear brother-in-law.

He was my nephew in our family. But I also respected him as my Pastor. He was a soldier, a warrior and a ambassador for his Jesus. He taught the truth he lived the truth and breath the truth. He shined his light so everyone could see Jesus in him. He always shared the Gospel (the good news) about Jesus. I am very sad, but I also rejoice. He saw Jesus. He is Home. He heard Him say Well done my Good and faithful servant. Please remember us all in your prayers. Especially his wife Pastor Judy and his kids, his mom and sisters. We will see you soon Pastor Mike. Love ya.
