“ Garlen was my recruiter my senior year of high school. It was fun acclimating him to East Brunswick, Nj. His reactions and comments were hilarious. I am fortunate to have witnessed what kind of Marine he was back in 1991 and thankful he helped me prepare for 3rd BN and his best friend as my Heavy to keep an eye on me. He will be sorely missed! My deepest condolences to his family and anyone who served with him. Semper Fi, RIP.

“ Oh my gosh, do you guys remember that old van Allen had that he had to push down the hill to get it to start? LOL That's the Allen I first came to know, just hanging out in Sardis. What a proud man and father he has become. Love and peace to his brothers, sisters, and children.
