“ My memories of Gary go back to my early childhood. He helped my sister (Diane) and I get our first ponies (Tonka and Ringo) and I'll never forget riding in the Cameron parade about this time so many years ago.

My mom and Dad (Bill and Mary) spent many hours talking to Gary as he often stopped by our house after the long drive from his work. I always knew it was Gary because that black truck with the racks was his signature ride for a long time! He truly loved to farm and loved sharing that passion with others. Jan, Gary Brent and Scottyyour in my thoughts and prayers at that sad time.

With Love, Tracy Francis Lambeth.

Jan I'm so sorry for the loss of Gary. You and the boys are in my prayers. I knew Gary for many years. He was one heck of a farmer just like his grandpap Lough. You know I would be at the service but with the cancer I'm having radiation Now and am confined at home. God Bless you Jan.
