“ One the better workers that worked under me. Think he redid 50-60 rooms in 2 years while I was his boss at Mound View. Wish I had 10 more like him. Sad to hear of him passing. Prayers to his family Great guy took pride in his work.

“ Gary was a one of kind.
A good man with a very kind soul.
His exterior was rough and guarded.
But his heart was pure and kind.
To all blessed to know him..
Remember his kindness and how hard working of a man he was.
And his excellent wood working skills.
A true God given talent.
Rest Easy Gary 💔

“Wow, so shocked and saddened to hear about Gary's death. Along with his brother Ricky, he was on the first Pee Wee baseball team I coached as a 17 year old.. We didn't win many games, but more importantly our friendship lasted over our lifetime. My thoughts and sympathy go out to all of his family and many friends.

“Gary was such a great person and friend to me and my girls while we worked at MoundView. Always kind and respectful to us. He knew how to treat women and always helped us in any way that he could. We absolutely loved him. So many happy memories of him. He will be missed. Prayers to his Mom, his family, his friends and all who knew and loved him. May you rest in peace Gary 🙏❤️
