“ George was a great friend and Civil War reenactor with my family and I. I want to let the Deem family know that I think about them often and say Mike's name in places I probably shouldn't. I used to work at JIATF-S and things are really rocky here. Sorry for your loss.

“ My brother, George, was so unique and different from the rest of our brothers. He had a mind of his own at an early age. My Mother was concerned that George didn't talk at an earlier age. When he began to talk, though, he was hilarious in some of the things he would say. He was so independent and adventurous. We would look around, say where is George? No one knew because he would always be doing his own thing! He stayed that way all of his life. I will miss my brother, George. He made me laugh every time I talked to him. Last time I talked to him was March 5th. He was cheerful and spoke highly of his family. George was a family man and would do what he had to do to take care of all of them. I know he will continue to intercede for all of them in Heaven. Yes, he changed his address...but, his heart will always be here on earth with his family. I love you, George.
