“ To all the family,
We were so saddened to learn of George's death. He was such a good friend to my sister & and her husband (Dolores & Norman Hammond). We remember him as such a pleasant man and as one of our drug salesmen from years back. He will be missed terribly. Our heartfelt sympathy to you.

“ Kelly, Chelsea, and Matthew: Your dad/grandad was a very good man. I have such fond memories of visiting with him and your mom/grandmom whenever we "Maryland Grubbers" came to Moundsville. I especially enjoyed riding through the hills with him while he pointed out family farms, the old sugar camp, and more. May he rest in peace.

“ Kelly, Chelsea, and Matthew,
Thank you for calling, Kelly. George and I had been friends since our Moundsville bunch went to Marshall College. Ann and I had a lot of good times with George and JoAnne. Moundsville will not be the same for me.
