“ Where to begin, you would visit me and then open you home to me whenever I showed up on a runaway. You never criticized just listen. Sometimes when it was freezing here in Maine you would have aunt Terry send pictures of you sitting on the porch swing having a cold one. The message was always "if you visit you can join me. Many times I did and you always had a few of my kind of beer waiting. How I am missing you and aunt Terry. Hope you have hooked up with dad and sharing stories. No amount of words can ever express the love I will hold in my heart always. Fly high with angel's and know I love you more!!
