“ We wish to extend our sympathy to Gilbert’s family. He was a such a kind hearted man who was always busy... He loved working in his garden(s) and would bring in beautiful produce He was a collector of many things.. I would give out the polished rocks to kids which he supplied to me .. We have several of his hand painted birdhouse squash in our trees He also had extensive coin and bottle collections and loved playing the Mandolin with the boys... And the stage he had for years.. He and Elaine would bring in their wonderful Christmas fudge .. So many good things about this man to appreciate.. He will be missed.
