“ To Sharon's family - it is always terrible to lose a loved one to cancer. I feel sorry for your loss. It's too bad you don't have a cat to remember her by..to care for them as she would have and feel a closeness to her. I do hope her wish was to have them with her at the time of their own natural death...being a pet lover I'm sure she did.

“ "Little Sharon," Your gentleness made you my friend. Your compassion made you my confidant and your strength in adversity made you my hero. Some people come into our lives, leaving footprints on our hearts, never to be the same. If I could reach up and hold a star for every time she made laugh, the entire evening sky would be in the palm of my hand. She was my soft place to fall.To the Howsare and Gilles family, You are in my heart now and forever. I love you all.JanetP.S. Sharon swallowed those coins!

“ To Gary and the kids, Cheryl, Wesley, and mom and dad Howsare, it was such an honor and great pleasure to work with Sharon. She was compassionate, dependable, smart, and funny. My life was enriched as well as the lives of my clients and their pets, by Sharon's grace. We've missed her being there daily and will miss her more still. She truly had a gift to convey calm and peace to animals and people in her presence. She was dearly loved at TFPP.

“ We grew up in the same neighborhood and I remember Sharon coming over to swing with me. She had some coins with her and put them in her mouth and then hung upside down. Since I was four yrs younger than she was I was just amazed... I also remember how excited we were when her cat had kittens... She was always such a sweet girl... Prayers to her family.

“ To the Gilles and Housare families: I am so sorry for your loss, we have all lost one great person. My sister went to school with Sharon and she came to our house a few times in High School and was always so nice. She always had a smile on her face and never said anything bad about anyone. A few years ago I ran into her again at Dr. Jody's office and she was so good with my German Shephard Harley. He loved her. In fact the last time I took him there was right after she got sick and she wasn't there and he actually tried to bite the vet! She always put him at ease and we will really miss her. Heaven has gained a true angel.

“ Gary & Family, My thoughts and prayers are with all of you! I was Sharon's 4th grade teacher at Sanford. I had run in to her at Dr. Jody's about 10 years ago when I was up visiting . Had a great time remember those 4th grade days with her. She had such a kind heart ... a very special gal who turned into an extra special adult. You probably don't remember me .. but I grew up on Center Street below you guys. I remember your Mom , Susan and you quite well. I had never put together who Sharon was married too. You guys have another special angel watching over you!

“ I am reminded of the "Rainbow Bridge" poem. This is where the animals who have gone before us run and play. Then one day, their ears perk up because they hear the familiar voice of their master and they run to meet each other. Oh how Sharon loved animals. Our faith in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ assures us we will all meet again one day. My prayers are with family during this time. I love you all. Ginger
