“ My sincere condolences to the family. Eric was a very nice man. Knew him as a good guy and now as a loving father. He was at Kiera's soccer games and baseball games. He and Larry followed her to all our T-ball games and attended soccer in the fall. Sorry to have lost a good father and young man who cared about his family and other!

“ Eric really means a bunch to me and my friends in and near Marysville, Ohio. It really hurts that his stay with us here on earth was so short. I just met Eric about 6 years ago, however I feel so chose that its like loosing a brother. What a GREAT MAN. Lots of tears and heavy hearts are thinking about all family and friends. To quote him, " its gonnna be fine". Heaven and tranquility we all share!

“ Larry and family,I just heard the news, so sorry to hear it. Eric gave me one of my first jobs, and I'll always remember that with gratitude. In all the years I worked at Riverfront, I had a lot of fun with Eric, Larry, and the other guys who worked there off and on. He was always good to me. There wasn't a better person to work for. Wish you all the best. Matt N.
